

RANGOLI MAKING COMPETITION:

Rangoli creation is an important aspect of Indian culture and adds to the festivities. As India commemorates 75 years of glorious freedom, Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, Laxmi Institute of Management hosted a Rangoli making competition on 10th August, 2022 to encourage students' ability and creativity.

The theme for the competition was 'Incredible India'. The competition was open to students enrolled in MBA and BVOC programs. In all there were 10 teams participating in the event. To create a joyful atmosphere, the participants created imaginative and colorful Rangolis. They employed eco-friendly elements including grains, diyas, flowers, and colored sawdust to preserve both the art form and the culture. The students put their best foot forward and competed enthusiastically. Their activities are best described by the words "innovation" and "creation." The winners of the competition were:
